(Edition PM2516 22nd April 2025)

Prayer Matters is published by Fiona Emery membercare@amtglobal.com.au every Tuesday. Please direct all prayer requests to her by noon on Monday.

Matt & Debi Zook, (Mozambique, DPG Day 1)

We would appreciate your prayers as we go back to Mozambique. Lord willing we arrive on the 22nd to Malawi where we will hire a taxi to the Mozambique border and then continue to our home either the same day or the next day. Pray for the traveling, customs and immigration and as we settle back in.

Herman & Belinda Lamprecht, (South Africa, DPG Day 2)

Work is still pretty full-on for Herman at the moment, as he is taking on more of the international IT work, whilst still providing a lot of support to the OM South Africa, and OM Africa teams. There is someone in the pipeline to potentially fill Herman's old role, but he is still yet to officially accept it or start work. Please could you pray with us that this is finalised soon.

Elise Long, (Philippines, DPG Day 8)

With Reshal and Nikki moving on to other work, we will need new a new team leader, school supervisor, and church shepherd to keep working with our emerging leaders. The assistant teachers will be heading off to senior high school too. Please pray with us for the right team to replace these amazing young people! A new health post is being built by the US Military at Manggahan, but we are doubtful that the local government will have the resources and staff to run it. Please pray that they will be open to creative solutions that really help the people. Our Menti high school boys are going to a 2 week Christian Training Camp. It's an intense Bible School, where they will learn about sermon preparation and preaching, evangelism, kids ministry and more. Pray for their growth and God's guidance.

David & Tina Cannon, (Thailand, DPG Day 9)

We just had a busy week in NE Thailand visiting our colleagues there. We were able to meet with 4 couples and do their 2 year review and then attended a retreat with the whole team. Pray for us as we continue this ministry to be a help and encouragement in the lives of our members. Pray we would have wisdom and discernment and good communication skills as we speak into their lives to challenge and encourage them. Please pray for our support level so far this year, as we are running at only about 50%.

Jason & Kim Job, (Australia, DPG Day 12)

Pray for Kim as she tutors students ranging from Year 1 through to Year 6 and spends time getting to know their families. They come from 4 different schools in the area. May God's love shine through her.

Trevor & Manoli Allan, (Spain, DPG Day 19)

Every Monday evening in the Agua Viva Church we are holding an Alfa Course for couples. It will last for 7 sessions, covering issues like good communication, resolving conflicts, forgiveness etc. Each week we transform the main hall of the Church into a nice restaurant, to provide the right atmosphere and opportunity where each couple can work through together the different assignments that are given and explained in the video that they watch. Manoli, with a team of waiters provides some very tasty tapas to eat. We would value your prayers for the 8 couples that are doing the Course.

Scott & Ruth Brown, (Specialist, DPG Day 23)

This past month has been a busy yet joyful season of ministry. Returning from my travels, I felt a deep burden for Cambodia and have been praying more intentionally. In response, OMF Cambodia now has an active Instagram page, and there's a growing enthusiasm for media involvement! The next step is launching a second page to engage the local church, ideally led by Khmer Christians or those with a strong cultural understanding. Please join me in praying for this initiative. Please join me in praying for Cambodia.

Peter & Anthea Keep, (VIC, DPG Day 23)

Please pray for Simeon, Juvenal and myself as we prepare for a trip to Ghana in July. Pray as I seek to complete of the material for two seminars we will be conducting. That finances will come through as promised as I have had to book already. That I will make good choices about thing to take, (we will be doing a visit to the two key Muslim Chiefs on our visit and it is customary that visitors present a gift). Choosing something that is both appropriate and fits our baggage allowance is tricky.
